ANNUAL SAVING.

The Dispatch of Sunday gives a comprehensive statement of what the practically completed Constitution will save the people annually, by the changes in the new Constitution, in substance as follows:

Amount paid clerks of circuit courts by the State, that office having been abolished.....	$2,425.50
Amounts paid same by counties.....	$1,132.00
Saving by changes in the jury system, in criminal cases to the State.....	10,000.00
Saving by same in counties.....	12,000.00
Saving in legislative Department, per year.....	17,500.00
Saving in salaries of judges.....	27,444.16
Saving in election expenses by having terms of district officers extended to four years, and by having elections in November, instead of May.....	20,000.00
Saving by reduction of taxes from 40 to 30 cents on $100.....	437,094.49
Total saving.....	$535,601.15
Gains to State, in way of adding to the taxable values of the State: franchise-tax on railroads.....	260,000.00
State tax on $5,000,000 estimated value of property exempted from taxation under old Constitution, but taxed under new Constitution.....	15,006.00
Total gain to State.....	$275,000.00

Attention is called to the fact that the cities and towns in which the above mentioned exempted property is located will have the right to try it also.

ROOSEVELT IN CHARLESTON

It was a kind, generous thing in President Roosevelt to go to Charleston this week. He has nothing to gain by it personally or politically, and he has not been abused or derided more venomously anywhere in this broad expanse of country than in that city. The time for his first visit had to be deferred on account of the serious illness of his son. He had other excuses and provocations for staying away, but he put all these aside and evidenced a kindly desire to help a worthy enterprise, struggling against adverse luck, and he is there now, after considerable labor and inconvenience. The people of the South should remember this trip to his credit.

High Price for Bedford Lands.

Bedford City Cor. Richmond Dispatch.

Some years ago H. M. Johnston, a native of Canada, came with his family to Bedford City and engaged in the business of a barber.

After a time he purchased "East Lavington," the residence and small farm owned by the late O. W. Kelsey, about a mile from the town limits for the sum of about $500.

Mr. Johnston made many improvements to the house, added nice barns, stables, etc., and in every way enhanced the value of the property.

The place has this week been sold through W. M. Dinwiddie, to E. M. Hayes, of Michigan, for the sum of $300,000.

This deal is a convincing object-lesson as to the advantage and tangible profit there is possible in the improvement of property, whether for personal use or for sale.

Of late years Bedford lands have been in considerable demand. Persons from the West, North, and other sections of the country have come to prospect, with a view to purchasing farms, and have created a constant demand for compact, small farms, with desirable dwellings and outhouses upon them.

Washington and Lee University defeated Hobart College, of Geneva, N. Y., Monday afternoon in a game of baseball, the score being 9 to 4. A second game for Tuesday afternoon was prevented by the snow storm of that day.

April 9.—Dr. James A. Quarles filled the pulpit of the old Stone Presbyterian church last Sabbath. It is a great privilege to listen to his helpful and inspiring sermons.

Rev. J. N. Vandevanter, having declined the call lately extended him by this congregation, a full meeting of the congregation is asked for Saturday, April 19th, to consider calling a pastor, and also as a preparatory service for the celebration of the Lord's Supper the following day.

The Sabbath Schools (the ground-hog of religious services) of this place, will open next Sabbath, for the summer.

Our neighborhood will have a building fever this spring and summer. Rev. E. M. Powell and S. M. Lackey will build large and convenient barns. Mrs. Bertha Wormeldorf will build a handsome and roomy dwelling. Chas. E. Mackey has added four rooms to his dwelling; Jas. S. Withrow dining room and kitchen, and John Withrow will build a large new dwelling.

Miss Margaret Lyle, the life and light of Hampden Sidney's society, is brightening our homes with her presence.

Chas. R. Goodman and Roy D. Thompson to-day went to Buena Vista to buy each a new top-buggy. Look out, some thing is "barged to drap."

Miss Bessie Henry is on a visit at the home of J. M. Harris, of Spottswood. D. V. S.

Buffalo Forge.

Gazette Correspondence.

April 7.—Dr. H. A. White, preached at Falling Spring church Sunday last, much to the edification of his hearers. Dr. Emmett McCorkle of Clifton Forge, will occupy the pulpit on next Sunday, the 13th.

Wm. Donald has contracted to build the new road up Buffalo creek, at this place, and commenced work with a force of hands last Monday. He expects to have the work open for travel in three weeks.

At a congregational meeting held at Falling Spring church Sunday, the 30th, a call was extended to Rev. J. E. Ballou of Craigsville, Va., to become the pastor of this and the Glasgow churches.

David Walker, a traveling salesman of Durham, N. C., is spending some time here with relatives.

Mrs. V. A. E. Stuart of Buena Vista, spent Easter week here with friends.

Miss Kate Clark of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Clark.

Miss Annie Fultz of Raphine, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lunsford, the past two weeks.

Miss Lambert of Waynesboro, is visiting at M. D. Wilson's.

Mrs. Penn, formerly an Appomattox lady, is very sick at the home of her brother-in-law, Capt. Walker.

Falling Spring church has invited the Rockbridge Sunday School Convention to meet here the 21st of May. B. F. V.

April 8.—After congratulations and encouraging comments from so many sources, I hope that it is not too late for me to enter the list of the many who express their joy over the fact that THE GAZETTE has taken on new life and in its new garb starts off with such a fair prospect for that success that is due it under the present management. Many are those who hope that its career of usefulness will not only see the end of its present century of life in the field, but that it may continue as long as time, as a faithful distributor of news and constant reflector of the principles of the true Democrats of our county. Don't understand me to mean that I want you—Moore and Kennedy—to live that long, for that would be cruel, but that THE GAZETTE may be handed down to worthy successors.

It was a surprise, on rising this morning, to find a covering of snow on the ground and all nature presenting the appearance of mid-winter. Heavy clothing and big fires are much in demand, when we would like to be doing our planting for the season. It is, however, all right and for the best, else it would not be thus.

The lips of our farmers are hanging pretty low in view of the fact of the season being so far advanced and so much of their preparation for planting yet to be done. The result will be a smaller acreage for corn than was expected.

Mr. Page, who lives near Neriah church, and Mr. Archart, who is farming for S. W. Wilson, each had the misfortune to lose a valuable farm horse recently.

Communion service will be held at the Associate Reformed church on next Sabbath with preaching on Friday and Saturday before, to include night services.

Ward Lackey, who was seriously ill for several months, is so much improved as to be able to ride out. All of his friends are rejoiced.

April 10.—Two gentlemen, representing the Lowmoor Iron Company, are busily prospecting for mineral on the Short Hill property. They state that they are authorized by their company to examine the property and report the same, and if the finds justify it, the Lowmoor Company expects to buy the property. The gentlemen state that they have already found some ore of good quality.

Howard Peery met with a painful accident last Monday on his way to Court. He was riding with Graham Leech in a buggy and on getting a short distance South of Fancy Hill store the horse became frightened at a load of furniture and ran a short distance, when the buggy struck a bank throwing Mr.

Peery out striking his shoulder against the ground. He is unable to use his arm. KAPPA.

Upper Colliers' Creek.

Gazette Correspondence.

April 9.—David Hostetter, possibly one of the oldest citizens of our neighborhood, died last Saturday, the 5th, at his home on top of the divide between Alphin and Kerr's Creek. He was a man of many good qualities and spent most of his life as a farmer. He was a truthful, honest, and hard working man. One notable event of his life happened during the war when he was detailed by the government as a wood chopper at a charcoal furnace, where he chopped nine cords in one day and ranked it the next day. He was buried on Sunday at his home. He leaves a wife and several children.

Last Sunday evening our section was visited by a severe electric storm accompanied with wind and rain, and on Tuesday following we had one of the worst snow billiards of the winter.

A very large bear passed through our midst last Sunday. Several persons saw him, and strange to say brim made his trip to the North mountain unmolested.

It is feared by many that the recent cold snap has injured the fruit.

THE GAZETTE is now in demand. Send us a few extra copies for distribution.

Central Kerr's Creek.

Gazette Correspondence.

April 9. We are truly glad to see so many letters from various sections of our county in the new GAZETTE, to say nothing of the great amount of wide awake and wholesome news beside, gathered from county and town. Your correspondent here has heard no little very favorable comment on the new and pleasing dress your paper has assumed.

Rev. D. P. Nell, pastor of Ebenezer A. R. P. church, held his spring communion services on Sunday last. Preparatory services, as usual, began on Friday. The community had the pleasure of hearing several very able sermons delivered by the Rev. E. B. Anderson.

A. F. Withrow of Milboro, spent Saturday and Sunday on the Creek with relatives.

Miss Lula Hickman left last week for Fayetteville, Tenn., where she will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Boyce Hood. Rev. Boyce Hood has recently taken charge of several churches at that place.

Rev. D. A. Penick will hold his spring communion services at New Monmouth on Sunday, April 20, beginning on the preceding Friday. Mr. Penick hopes to have the Rev. R. M. Tuttle of Colliers-town to assist in this meeting.

Death of Dr. J. B. Fitzpatrick.

The Winona (Miss.) Times of March 22nd contains the announcement of the death of Rev. Dr. J. B. Fitzpatrick from heart failure. He was well-known to many of our people. He was born in Rockbridge county in 1832 and entered the Methodist ministry when 21 years of age, and during the war was chaplain of a Virginia regiment.

Subsequently he entered the Episcopal ministry and served as rector of several of the leading churches of West Virginia. Dr. Fitzpatrick received a call to Sherman, Texas, about 15 years ago, and he became the Arch Deacon of North Texas. He was an eloquent pulpit orator and a forceful and fearless writer.

Among relatives in this county is a sister, Mrs. J. Y. Clark of Buffalo Mills, and a brother, John Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Walter Hardigan of Rockingham county, is also a sister of the deceased.

The Educational Conference

Invited to Lexington.

The faculty of Washington and Lee University, at its meeting held Tuesday afternoon, passed a resolution inviting the members of the Southern Educational Conference to visit Lexington and the University on their tour through the South. The Conference is to convene at Athens, Ga., April 23, and if the invitation of Washington and Lee is accepted, the distinguished visitors will reach Lexington about May 1. The company numbers about one hundred. Among the number are John D. Rockefeller, Jr., George Foster Peabody, W. H. Baldwin, Walter H. Page, and Albert Shaw. Robert C. Ogden is manager of the party.

Rockbridge Sunday School Convention.

Preparations are being made for the annual convention of the Rockbridge Sunday School Association, to be held at Falling Spring Presbyterian church, beginning the third Wednesday in May and continuing through Thursday.

The district organizer, S. E. Horn, of Rockbridge Baths, is anxious that all the districts of the county be organized before the convention. To that end he wishes to urge the district vice-presidents who have not yet done so, to report to him at an early date the needs of their respective districts, so that organization may be perfected.

What the Press Thinks of the Gazette.

We appreciate and feel honored by the handsome notices given below by our brethren of the press. We shall strive to fulfill their expectations.

Rockbridge County News:

The first issue of the LEXINGTON GAZETTE under its new publishers and editors, Messrs. Moore & Kennedy, was published Friday evening. The paper appears in an attractive new heading and new dress, and is neatly and clearly printed. Its contents are an interesting compendium of facts of local interest about Rockbridge and Lexington, and a discriminating selection of general news and miscellaneous matter. The editors announce that up-to-date local and general news will be the chief characteristic of the paper, and their opening number gives every assurance that they can and will carry out this purpose.

During the past month the County News has for the first time had the complete monopoly of the local news paper field and the newspaper business in this office has been unusually dull. There is nothing truer than the homely proverb that competition is the life of trade, though would-be monopolists are loath to recognize it; and we look confidently to the competition of our contemporary under young and vigorous management to aid in bringing increased prosperity to the newspaper business in Lexington, of which we should get our share.

Where there are two or more papers in a community instead of one the community is better off, for it gives a better chance to every man to be heard. This, fortunately, includes the editor of the paper himself, who if he bears all the responsibility for newspaper utterances, is tempted, in view of the divided opinions of his patrons, which includes all the county or community, to assume responsibility for no opinions and to speak his mind on nothing; and the duty which every reputable newspaper owes to speak, as occasion arises, for truth and righteousness and the public interest to the best of its judgment and conscience, is more likely to be avoided.

We welcome the reappearance of the GAZETTE. We congratulate its publishers and editors upon its first issue and wish them success.

Spirit of the Valley, Harrisonburg, Va.

Last week the GAZETTE, of Lexington, came to us in its new dress and under its new management and proprietorship. As heretofore announced in the columns of the Spirit of the Valley, the GAZETTE was purchased by Messrs. J. Scott Moore and Wm. R. Kennedy after the death of its late lamented owner, Major E. H. Barclay, but last week's paper (March 28th, 1902,) is the first issue under its new management. Both of the new proprietors are experienced newspaper men and judging by this first issue the public may expect to see a first-class weekly newspaper.

Lynchburg News:

THE LEXINGTON GAZETTE under its new management came out last week in a new dress and in very attractive form. After the death of the former owner and editor, Major E. H. Barclay, the paper was purchased by J. Scott Moore and William R. Kennedy. The former has been connected with Lexington news papers for years, while Mr. Kennedy is a well known correspondent for prominent out-of-town papers. These experienced and capable men will give new life and energy to the old and respected GAZETTE, and that they know what they are about is already evident.

Bath County Enterprise:

THE LEXINGTON GAZETTE came to us this week in a brand new dress, full of news and well printed. The improved appearance of this paper speaks well for the new owners. We wish them success, but, as they have already had a "pull" at the biz, we shall not offer any suggestions or tell them what was there is attached to the weekly newspaper man.

Richmond Times:

Messrs. J. Scott Moore and Wm. R. Kennedy have assumed control of the LEXINGTON GAZETTE, which was formerly edited by the late E. H. Barclay. The paper is wonderfully improved in appearance, as well as in other respects.

Staunton Argus:

The first issue of the revived LEXINGTON GAZETTE, with Messrs. J. Scott Moore and Wm. R. Kennedy as publishers and editors, appeared on Friday looking as neat and fresh as an Easter flower.

Richmond Dispatch:

Our old friend, the LEXINGTON GAZETTE, has, under its new management, put on a brand new dress, and displays every evidence of the increasing prosperity it so richly deserves.

Birth of Triplets.

Mrs. Ben Falls, who lives near Longwood, on Friday evening gave birth to triplets—one boy and two girls. The girls weighed 15 pounds, and the boy six pounds. They are promising children, and the three have bright prospects of living. It is said that one of the girls had two well-defined teeth when it came into the world. This is a prolific neighborhood, as a practicing physician tells us that across the line in Botetourt, and near the line of Rockbridge, two colored women recently gave birth to triplets.

E. D. Moore has bought from Charles Champ the house and lot on Jordan street, immediately in rear of the Presbyterian manse.

Taken From Amherst County Jail and Hanged.

A lynching occurred about midnight Saturday night, across the mountain in the quiet village of Amherst C. H. The circumstances were these:

James Carter, a young negro, was in jail having been sent there Friday morning by Justice Whitehead to await the action of the grand jury. The charge against him was that he shot and seriously wounded on Thursday night Mr. Don Thomas, a young farmer living near New Glasgow, in Amherst county, seven miles from the court house.

Soon after 11 o'clock Saturday night a company of about 200 men rode from the neighborhood where the shooting occurred to Amherst. All were masked or wore disguise. Jailer Jones had locked up the night and had left the jail and was on his way to his home, and when a short distance from the jail he was stopped by the leaders of the party, who, at the point of pistols, compelled him to return to the prison and unlock it. Besides Carter, there were three other prisoners in the cells. The masked men took out Carter, locked the jail, gave the keys to the jailer, who then went off to notify Sheriff Beard. Carter was taken along the public road toward New Glasgow, to a locust tree, about half a mile from the town. Here a rope was thrown over a convenient bough and the body of the negro was soon dangling in the air. A fusillade of shots was fired at him, and then the men rode back home.

Last Thursday an out-house on the property of Mr. Thomas Payne, near New Glasgow, where Carter worked, was burned and Mr. Don Thomas, who lives nearby, told Mr. Payne that he believed the negro Carter had caused the fire. Carter heard this and, securing a pistol, went late at night to the home of Mr. Thomas and calling him fired at him. Mr. Thomas was hit near the heart, and retreating into the house, closed the door. The negro, throwing his weight against it, opened the door and fired twice. One of these shots made a flesh wound near Mr. Thomas' mouth. The negro then ran off and was captured next morning by Sheriff Beard at Amherst just as he was about to board a train. He was placed in jail, and a short time afterward a body of men from New Glasgow made its appearance, but returned when informed that Carter had been captured. The negro had a preliminary hearing Saturday morning before Justice Whitehead, who sent him on to the grand jury.

John A. Noon of Staunton, secretary of the Republican congressional committee for the 10th district, was here Tuesday, in conference with the secretaries of the Republican executive committees of Rockbridge and Botetourt.

NOTICE of First Meeting of Creditors in the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Va.

In the matter of W. E. MILLER, Bankrupt. No. 107, in Bankruptcy.

To the creditors of W. E. MILLER, of Fancy Hill, in the County of Rockbridge and District aforesaid, a Bankrupt,

Notice is hereby given, that on the 28th day of March A. D. 1902, the said Wm. E. Miller was duly adjudicated Bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at the office of E. M. Pendleton, in Lexington, Va., on the 18th day of April, 1902, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the Bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

PUBLIC SALE

House and Lot

IN LEXINGTON.

Pursuant to a decree of the circuit court of Rockbridge county, entered on the 11th day of March 1902, in the chancery cause pending therein of R. J. McBryde and F. T. Glasgow, Guardians, v. John Stuart Williams, and others, I shall on Saturday, the 12th day of May, 1902, in front of the court house of Rockbridge county offer for sale at public auction, at 12 M., the house and lot on Jefferson street, on the west side thereof, adjoining on the south side, the residence property of Charles Pole. This property was owned by Mrs. Fannie S. Williams, in her lifetime.

This property is desirably situated, in a good community, and with little expense can be made a very attractive home for a small family.

Terms of Sale:—One-fourth in cash, and as to the residue, on a credit of one, two, and three years, the purchaser giving his bonds with good security, the property to be kept insured by purchaser, and the policy to be placed as collateral for the purchase money unpaid.

FRANK T. GLASGOW, Commissioner.

April 9th 1902.

In the Circuit Court Clerk's Office of Rockbridge County:

I, R. R. Witt, clerk of said court, hereby certify that F. T. Glasgow, commissioner, has given bond with surety, as required by the decree of sale, under which the above advertisement is made.

Teste:

April 9th, 1902 At R. R. WITT, Clerk.

Removal.

Having decided to locate in Culpeper, Va., I take this occasion to thank my many friends for their past patronage and influence.

In the future my office will be occupied by Dr. John H. Hartman, and I respectfully refer my patients to his care.

Our Eighth Year!

In announcing the opening of our Eighth Spring Season we wish, first of all, to thank our many friends and patrons for the encouragement they have given us in the past seven years. We entered upon the mercantile business with some misgivings as to the success of it, but our growth has been steady and unwavering from the first. Last year our business increased 20 per cent. over any former year, and for this we are grateful.

Our efforts in the future, as in the past, shall be steadily directed toward making this store a place to which all may come with the confident assurance of being dealt with fairly and honorably. Not being infallible we are liable to err; but our mistakes need only to be pointed out to us, to receive instant correction. The principle on which we shall continue to conduct our business is: "Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded."

By some foresight and great good luck, we have been able to supply reasonably well the heavy demand for Gingham this season, and our stock is not by any means exhausted yet. On our recent trip north we were able to pick up some valuable additions to this line, and hence offer some very choice patterns in "A. F. C." and Seersuckers at 10c. and 12c. respectively. "Same old price." Something a little finer? Hungarian Madras, 15c. Corded Madras, 15c. Delta Cheviot, 15c. All these are in fine stripes, so desirable for Ladies' Waists, and Men's Shirts as well.

Next come those beautiful silk-like mercerized Chambrays at 20 and 25c., solid and striped; and the colored Linens, same styles and prices.

Isn't that enough? Well, we haven't said a word about WHITE GOODS, and they are too numerous and too pretty to write about; but a look will convince you that they are here in almost endless variety, both as to style and price.

WHITE MADRAS—in dainty little stripes and cords—for waists and shirts, 20c.

GALATEAS, LINEN CRASHES and BLOUSE LINENS 15, 20 and 25c.

LAWNS, DIMITIES and ORGANDIES in a wide range of price and quality; 5c. for the least; 50c. for the best. These are cheaper than last year, and the styles are better. Goods that cost 15c. last year we sell this year for 10c., and the patterns are all new.

Those who bought our India Linens the past two years know how good and cheap they were. We have exactly the same line this year, and at exactly the same prices. How did we do it? Bought them last summer when the price was at least 10 per cent. lower than now. The advantage is yours.

In Embroideries, Laces, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear, Gloves, Fans, and all such useful articles, our stock is superior to any we have ever shown.

Ribbons are "simply immense," especially Satin Taffetas and Wash Taffetas. Do you remember the lovely wash ribbons we sold you last summer? Same line now, as pretty and cheap as then.

In response to the request of many of our customers, we have decided to put in a stock of Ruslin Underwear and have selected the "Queen" Undergarments, than which we think there are none better made for the price.

Corset Covers from 25 to 89c. Drawers from 25c. to $1.00.
Gowns from 50c. to $1.25. Skirts from 60c. to $2.00.
We expect these daily. Come and see them.

IRWIN & COMPANY.

What You Should Know.

That ADAIR now has in his entire Spring and Summer stock; that his store is filled with the most up-to-date Goods that money will buy; that he is selling them on very close margin of profit either for cash, or on 30 day settlements, unless otherwise arranged; that no modern large city store sells for less price, and he will always welcome you to his store to show you what he is offering.

White Goods.

The largest display in the town, prices from 8 to 50 cents per yard. Two special things in the lot. One an India Linon at 10 cents worth 12c. Another thing is our famous 40 inch Organdie at 25 that I have so successfully sold for some years, pleasing the wearer in every instance. Nothing anywhere to surpass it.

Waist Materials.

This is a great shirt waist and skirt season. The waist materials in both woolen and silk are beautiful. I have pretty, all wool waistings at 25, and up to fine silks at $1.00 per yard.

Black Goods.

Every well dressed lady is obliged to have one Nice Black Suit. With a fine shirt waist she is always ready. I carry the Priestly lines, and offer it as the best money will buy. You are never disappointed in the wear and service of these goods. Always come and see them before buying.
